

CLOSING SCENES

Democratic National Convention is Now in its Final Throes.

The Nomination of Judge Alton B. Parker for First Place is Now Conceded.

By Western Union;

The convention was called to order at 10:47 a. m. and prayer was offered by Samuel Sales, of St. Louis.

The committee on resolutions reported that they were not ready to present the resolutions, and the time was occupied by calling on favorite sons for speeches. Richmond Hobson, the much kissed man, was one of the speakers.

It being apparent about 1:30 that there was no probability of the committee on resolutions agreeing on a report for some time, the convention adjourned until 8:00 p. m.

St. Louis, July 8.—With the adoption of a platform of principles upon which the party will stand during the coming campaign the Democratic national convention today cleared the decks for the great event of the week, the nomination of standard bearers for the pending political fray. With the clearing of the atmosphere by the vote taken late yesterday afternoon on the report of the committee on credentials, which was the first test of strength of the ALTON B. PARKER.

Parker and anti-Parker forces, all doubts of the New York jurist's success were dissipated and the nomination of Alton B. Parker is now almost universally conceded, but one ballot probably being sufficient to accomplish this result.

The vice presidential question has today attracted general attention among the delegates and a half dozen or more booms are under full way. The result of the vote for running mate is clouded in speculation and there are as many predictions as there are "favorite sons" before the convention, and these are not few in number.

Though the great Coliseum has been crowded beyond all former precedents during the past two days, the demand for tickets of admission today was simply overwhelming and the convention hall is packed almost literally to a point of suffocation. The discomfort due to the heat and the faulty ventilation has resulted in several prostrations, some of which may have a serious outcome.

SECOND DAY'S DOINGS

Vote on Credentials Report Shows First Test of Strength.

St. Louis, July 8.—The Democratic national convention yesterday adopted the report of the committee on rules, credentials and permanent organization, and at 6:20 adjourned until 10 o'clock today.

During the day several speeches were made, chief of which was William Jennings Bryan's effort to overthrow the report of the credentials committee and seat contesting delegates from Illinois. The controversy was ended by the rejection of the minority report of the committee by a vote of 647 yeas to 299 nays. Though Mr. Bryan's speech and his appearance on the floor of the convention was cheered far beyond any previous demonstration, it made few votes. The alignment of delegates proved the correctness of previous estimates of the division between those who favor the radicals and those who are supporting the conservative element which is now in control.

When the result of the contest was announced the report of the committee on permanent organization was made. Representative Champ Clark, who was chosen permanent chairman, addressed the convention. He had prepared and furnished to the press a speech of great length. The hour was so late when he gained the platform, however, that he spoke about 300 words and left his audience to read the remainder.

The ovation given to Mr. Bryan was one of the greatest ever transpiring at any of the notable events for which the immense Coliseum is famed. It continued for twelve minutes with so much fervor that Temporary Chairman Williams and all of his assistants, including a hundred policemen, were unable to restore order. Quiet came from the convention only after the Parker forces joined in and by persistent efforts turned the tide by a counter great demonstration for the New Yorker, so that the favorite candidate for the nomination for president finally reaped the harvest of enthusiasm sown for Mr. Bryan.

The inconsistencies of a great unorganized body, such as is formed by the spectators, delegates and alternates making up a great political convention was aptly illustrated in this gathering. Thousands of throats cheered Bryan as lustily as they did when he was chosen eight years ago as the Democratic candidate for president. The great tumult to the initiated would have been proof positive that the Nebraskan, more than ever, was the hero of his party. And yet, when a banner bearing the inscription "Georgia's Parker Delegation" was taken to the platform and held aloft where all could see, the applause was directed that way. Without pausing in their enthusiasm the great throng of men and women shouting the name of Bryan switched to Parker as if their only ambition was to cheer and make a great noise.

The morning session of the convention was without material interest except for the dissensions caused by objection to that part of the report from the committee on rules which provides for the seating of the delegates sent by insular possessions.

Several delegates discussed the report and roll-call was asked for, but the report was adopted finally without resorting to that method of determining the action of the convention. It remained for the afternoon session to create that degree of strife which makes conventions interesting to the masses. This was the contest relating to the Illinois delegation. It was known that Mr. Bryan would take an active part in the matter at odds believed to be overwhelmingly against him. The galleries and other space in the hall allotted to spectators showed how great a drawing card he is. Practically every seat was occupied and the aisles were crowded. On the platform sat distinguished guests in greater number than at any previous session. The increased attendance to a great extent was because of the fact that Mr. Bryan was slated to speak on a matter sure to engender feeling and spirited debate.

When Mr. Bryan entered the convention hall at about the hour the convention was to be called to order the first sound of applause in the vicinity of the Nebraska delegation drew every gaze in that direction. As if to make up for the tardy welcome extended to Mr. Bryan on Wednesday, a great number opened the cheering simultaneously from the center galleries. That there should be no misunderstanding in regard to who was the object of the ovation, the Nebraska delegates wrenched from the floor the standard marking their location in the hall and waved the banner high above all others. That was a signal for Mr. Bryan's following to congregate about their leader. Adopting the Nebraska delegation's example, other anti-Parker states tore loose their standards and rallied about Mr. Bryan.

For a short time some degree of organization was maintained among the majority of delegates, but the sight of great human walls, forming the galleries, shouting themselves hoarse, and throwing and waving hats, umbrellas and coats, and many persons on the elevated platform yelling and motioning encouragement, proved too much for the more orderly delegates to withstand. They joined with the demonstrative ones until the thunderous applause was converted into a deafening roar.

As the applause opened Temporary Chairman Williams, who was ready to call the convention to order, started in to subdue it with his gavel. Soon that was drowned out completely. Seeing that he was getting no aid from his fellow convention officials, Mr. Williams contented himself with a desultory pounding with his heavy mallet, which could be seen but not heard. The confusion in the hall was unprecedented. Strong-junged admirers of the Nebraskan openly left the seats in the spectators' reservation and marched about the Nebraska delegation. The noise of the demonstration increased in volume, even after it seemed the limit of endurance must have been reached. All other displays of enthusiasm were dwarfed in comparison.

After the applause had continued unbroken for more than fifteen minutes Temporary Chairman Williams again tried to get the attention of the delegates and motioned the band to play. Again and again he signalled the musicians, only to learn a moment later that the instruments were pouring out all the volume of which they were capable. Not a note could be heard on the speaker's platform, unless it was listened for intently.

Then it was that the conservative forces turned to the aid of the chair. They started applause for Parker. His name on a purple banner proved almost as magnetic as Bryan in the flesh. From one idol to another the gathering turned. The Georgia delegation, carrying the Parker banner, marched to the platform and the cheering was increased, if that were possible. The applause was general, coming from delegates, from the galleries and other parts of the Coliseum. While the delegations participating were different in some instances from those which led the Bryan reception, the galleries did not discriminate. Every new movement was the signal for renewed efforts. The South Carolina standard was held beside the Georgia banner. Inasmuch as the South Carolina delegation was originally anti-Parker the movement was significant. Other delegations followed suit and soon the standards of Arkansas, Pennsylvania, Indiana, New Jersey, Alabama and others which could be removed from the floor were uplifted over the platform. Some of the standards which were marched to the Parker rally a few minutes before had been a part of the Bryan demonstration. Hissing was started in the galleries when the Parker movement broke out, but it was soon effaced by the shouting masses.

A BIG DEAL

Whereby the Pere Marquette Passes Under Control of C. H. & D.

One of the biggest railroad deals ever put through in the Middle West was announced Thursday after a meeting in Cincinnati of the directors of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton has acquired a controlling interest in the Pere Marquette and the Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville Railroads.

The system will be operated by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad.

Eugene Zimmerman, Cincinnati, was elected president of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton at the meeting yesterday and George M. Cumming, of the United States Mortgage and Trust company, of Cincinnati, was elected vice president.

M. D. Woodford, who has for many years been president of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, has been an invalid for some time, and three weeks ago retired as President.

The annual gross earnings of the three roads is between twenty and twenty-two millions of dollars.

It is said the capital stock of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton system will be equivalent to $2,000 a mile.

Extensive improvements are contemplated, which will be commenced soon.

Must Break Two Contracts

A cranky Justice of the Peace has come to the front with a contract where the parties contracting marriage enter into an agreement not to be divorced.

In speaking of a marriage before the said J. P., where a man contracted to keep a contract, an exchange says:

Harry J. Collier, secretary of the Collier Bridge Co., of Indianapolis, who was married Tuesday at Cleveland, Ohio, signed a contract not to be divorced from his wife. Mr. Collier married Miss Myrtle J. Barber, of Cleveland, at the office of the Justice of the Peace Ginley. The justice has an anti-divorce contract which he makes all the persons he marries sign. The contract end of the ceremony caught Collier and his bride off their guard, but both signed it and the knot was tied.

LOSE TO REDS

Rushville Team Receives Dubbing at Greensburg.

When Things Were Coming Their Way They Lost Their Heads and Dropped the Game.

Instead of seeing a ball game, the one hundred and seventy-two fans who accompanied the Rushville team to Greensburg yesterday saw an ideal exhibition of error making, never before equalled by a team from this city. The locals held the lead until the fourth when Greensburg tied the score with an earned run. In the fifth the locals took an arial flight of broad proportions and allowed the Reds to score twice. But it was in that terrible eighth that the work was done. The Rushville team again soared into the clouds and were totally unable to get together and play the game of which they are and always have been capable.

There was nothing doing in the first inning, but in Rushville's half of the second, Tompkins singled to left-center and was sacrificed to second by Herald, from which place he scored on Kiser's double.

In Greensburg's half of the fourth, Conklin singled to right, was sacrificed to second by Firestone and to third by Braden and crossed the plate on Condiff's hit through short.

In the fifth, Greensburg took the lead by scoring two runs. Pierson, the third man up, sent a hot grounder to Herald and reached first as Waybright was being chased back and forth between third and second. Herald and Kiser succeeded in putting Waybright to sleep and Pierson went to second, when Conklin was hit by a pitched ball. Pierson took third on an error by Carter and stole home. Conklin stole second and went to third on Firestone's hit through short, scoring on Braden's hit through the same place. The Rushville team was somewhat mixed in this inning and errors were numerous. It was with some difficulty that the side was retired.

In the eighth the Reds played ball of the hammer and tongs style. Condiff, the first man up, drew a base on balls, went to second on an error by Morgan and scored on Waybright's double between short and second. Dooley hit a grounder to Morgan and reached first on the latter's error. He was passed to third by Waybright's double and was scored by Pierson on an error. McCord was hit by pitched ball, stole second, and went to third on an error, scoring with Waybright on errors. Greensburg filled the bases on hits and errors and scored two more runs when Thoman fell down while running backwards after Firestone's long drive to left. Thoman succeeded in getting the ball into the infield before any more runs could be scored. The Rushville team settled down, the side was retired with the next out and the agony was over.

It was a big surprise to everyone to see the home team lose their heads like they did, but of course the team cannot win all its games and will have an off-day every once in a while. The game yesterday was a repetition of the Indianapolis Washington-Rushville game, except that it was of a worse form.

TODAY'S GAME.

In the presence of 1500 people the Greensburg and Rushville teams put up one of the most exciting games ever played in this city. Rushville had the game 2 to 0 had it not been for one fatal inning when they duplicated yesterday's performance of making errors and let Greensburg get two runs.

The teams lined up for the battle as follows:

Rushville—Tompkins, lf.; Carter, ss.; Morgan, c.; Mitchell, 1b.; Wagner, p.; Arnold cf.; Thoman, rf.; Herald, 3b.; Kiser, 2b.

Greensburg—Pierson, 1b.; Conklin, 3b.; Firestone, 2b.; Braden, ss.; Condiff, cf.; Barnes, lf.; Dooley, c.; Waybright, rf.; Donald, p.

Both teams started off like they meant business. The home team took the field first and their trot out to the field brought forth a ripple of applause.

The game began at 2:45. Wagner began the game exactly as the fans wanted him to, by striking out Pierson, the first man up. Conklin hit an easy one to Wagner, and Firestone hit to Kiser, ending the inning. In Rushville's half, Tompkins went out on a slow one to the second baseman, Carter fled to left, Morgan hit a grounder to second, ending the inning.

In the second inning, Braden grounded to Wagner, Condiff hit one to third too hot to handle, Barnes singled over short, Dooley hit to Kiser, who threw him out at first and Waybright ended all chances of Condiff scoring by hitting an easy one to the pitcher. In Rushville's half the Indian walked, Wagner attempted to sacrifice and on the first baseman's error landed safe and the Indian went to third; he scored on Arnold's single, Thoman flew to left, Wagner got out on attempt to steal third, Kiser singled, scoring Arnold, and Herald went out on an attempt to reach third.

In the third inning, Donald struck out, Pierson hit to Carter and died.

Conklin let Wagner throw him out on an easy one. In Rushville's half Tompkins hit a fluke fly to Donnell, Carter hit a fly to left field and "Windy," grounded to the second baseman and ended the inning. In the fourth, Firestone singled and went to second on an error by center fielder, Braden hit to Carter, who threw Firestone out at third, Condiff struck out, and Braden scored on a long fly which Thoman and Arnold both tried to get, and Barn went to third, and scored a minute later on Carter's error on a grounder and the Indian dropped a hit by Waybright, but Dooley was thrown out on his effort to reach third. The score was tied. In Rushville's half the Indian struck out, Wagner hit a grounder to second, and Arnold struck out.

In the fifth inning, Donnell walked but went out at second on Pearson's attempt to sacrifice, Conklin's hit to second was doubled to the Indian, who completed a double by a most difficult catch. Rushville's half, Thoman struck out, Herald tried to duplicate his fine single, but flied to third, Kiser singled to center, Tompkins retired the side on a grounder to second.

In the sixth, Firestone lead off with a two-base hit. The Greensburg team here claimed a block, claiming that some one at the willows had stopped the ball, but after several bolts of calico had been consumed in a chew-in' match, play was resumed. Braden flew out to first, Condiff hit a grounder which threw him out at first, but advanced Firestone to third, Barnes fouled to Morgan, ending the agony. In Rushville's half, Carter went out on an attempt to bunt, Morgan's line fly was caught by Donnell, the Indian walked again, Wagner went out on an assist by the second baseman.

In the seventh inning, Dooley got to first on Kiser's inability to pick up the ball, Waybright sacrificed and Dooley went to second, but on a hair raising play by Herald, who threw to first, a double play was completed, but another kick by the visitors induced the umpire to spare Dooley's life and Thompson put the fourth man out by catching a long one off Pierson's bat. Arnold made a hit in Rushville's half, but another kick, sent him back to the plate and he went out Conklin to Pierson, Thoman hit to the pitcher, Herald singled over second, Kiser struck out.

In the eighth inning Conklin's prospective hit was killed by Carter's good catch. The Indian never moved a step for Firestone's line fly and Braden went out, Wagner to first. In Rushville's half, Tompkins went out to center, Carter did not reach first on his slow one, Windy hit a little one to the pitcher.

In the ninth inning, Condiff went out, Herald to Short Bull, Barnes struck out, Dooley hit to Wagner and was thrown out. In Rushville's half the Indian went out on a slow grounder to first, Wagner went out on a phenomenal stop by the second baseman, Arnold struck out.

In the tenth inning, Waybright flew out to Tompkins, Donnell singled, Pierson got three strikes and Windy caught Donnell at second, but Pierson reached first. Conklin hit one to Wagner, which he did not handle and Firestone went out, Wagner to Short Bull. In Rushville's half Thoman went out on a fly, Herald hit a grounder to short, Kiser flew out to left field.

In Greensburg's half of the eleventh, Rushville took an aerial flight. Braden singled to center, Condiff passed him to second on a single to left, Barnes hit to Wagner, who threw to Herald, the latter dropping the ball, and Barnes going to first, Dooley came to bat and hit a grounder to Kiser, who failed to get it to first. Braden scored and Condiff and Barnes advanced a base, Waybright struck out and Donnell came to bat, Donnell doubled to right, scoring Condiff and Barnes, Pierson was hit by a pitched ball and Conklin singled through short and Dooley scored, Firestone reached first on an error by Herald and Donnell scored, Braden stepped up to the plate and hit to Wagner, who threw Pierson out at the plate, Condiff flew out to center. In Rushville's half Tompkins drew a base on balls, Carter struck out and Morgan sacrificed Tompkins to second, Mitchell came to bat and Tompkins stole second, Mitchell went out on a grounder to first, ending the game.

Richmond Minister Missing

Rev. Elwood O. Ellis left his home, corner of Ninth and South A streets, Richmond, at 1:30 p. m., Tuesday, July 5th, taking with him about $100 to pay some bills in the city, since which time nothing has been heard of him. He is a popular minister of the Friends' church, a trustee of Earlham college and secretary of the Indiana Yearly Meetings of the Friends' church.

His family are much distressed at his absence. Anyone having any information of him since then will confer a favor by advising this friends in Richmond. It is thought by some that he wandered away during a temporary mental aberration and by others that he met foul play.

You'll Meet Johnny Wises.

As soon as the convention's over, No matter who's the candidate—Hearst, Bryan, Parker, Gorman, Grover—Be sure that it will be your fate To meet a thousand Johnny Wises, Who won't be seven seconds slow, Or else all wrong are our surmises, In bawling out: "I told you so."

The all important question, "What will Bryan do?"

Mr. Bryan's ovation he received yesterday was found to be of the soft soap variety when the test vote was taken.

The question of adopting the platform will be the feature of today's session. Will they follow the "Peerless Leader That Was," or will they let August Belmont and Wall street
 "fix it up" for them?

Now that Mr. Swallow, the candidate for President on the Prohibition ticket, has invited Mr. Bryan to become a member of that party, it might be a golden opportunity to beat Miles to that nomination.

It was interesting to note how many hearts in Rushville were glad-dened by the report of the demonstration for Mr. Bryan at St. Louis yesterday. Mr. Bryan has more warm personal friends in Rush county today than any man that has ever been mentioned for President or vice president.

A poll of the Ohio delegation at St.
 Louis discloses the fact that fully one half of the delegation would like to dodge the unit rule and the inevitable Parker. Our Democratic brethren in Ohio must surely have a representative delegation, and if they have, they have something Indiana Democrats cannot boast of.

An exchange speaks of a man who it said, always pays for his paper a year in advance. As a result he has never been sick in his life, never had corns on his toes, or toothache; his potatoes never rust, the frost never kills his pears, his babies never cry at night, his wife never scolds and he succeeded in serving three terms on a school board without being criticised.

John Gilbert Meiggs, the railroad builder, has just died in London. He was born in New England seventy-seven years ago, but lived for the last thirty years in London. With his brother, he built the famous Oroya railroad in Peru, which is still regarded as one of the greatest feats of engineering.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

Republicans Derive Satisfaction From St. Louis Convention.

Indianapolis, July 8.—Press dispatches from St. Louis which reiterate the statement that Thomas Taggart will not be named as chairman of the Democratic national committee are looked upon as auguries of an easy victory by Republicans of Indiana. With Taggart coming home disappointed and Kern left off the ticket, Republican leaders say, the Democratic party in the state will remain in a chaotic condition, as neither Taggart nor Kern can be looked to for anything but half-hearted work after a "turn down" of the kind it is believed they will be given. While it is admitted that, under certain circumstances, Indiana might be in the doubtful column, or might even flop to the Democratic ranks, it is confidently predicted by men like Governor Durbin, Congressman Overstreet, "Big Chief" Joe Kealing and dozens of others who keep in touch with state affairs, that there is only the remotest chance of the developing of such favorable conditions.
 A prominent Democrat, editor of one of the leading Democratic papers in the northern part of the state, said today: "Only the interposition of Providence can defeat the Republican ticket, both national and state, next fall, but of course I can't say that to my readers. It's a fact, nevertheless, as I know from personal observation."

Perry S. Heath, late of Salt Lake city, passed through Indianapolis a day or so ago on his way to Noblesville, where Mr. and Mrs. Heath will spend several weeks. They will visit the family of C. R. Heath at the latter's summer home near Noblesville. Perry Heath when seen by reporters, declined to say anything for publication further than that he is "out of politics and intends to stay out." He would enter into no discussion of affairs at Salt Lake City, and had nothing to say regarding his future plans. When asked as to the truth of the report that he has in the last few years accumulated a fortune of half a million dollars, Mr. Heath laughed. "Maybe it isn't quite that much," he said, "but I can tell you, confidentially, that I'm not a candidate for admission to any poor-farm or almshouse."

Indiana Prohibitionists are planning a billboard campaign for next fall that will be something new in the politics of the state. The Central Indiana Temperance Billboards association has been formed by Prohibitionists and members of the W. C. T. U. and others, and every steam and electric road entering Indianapolis, as well as the country gravel roads, will soon be dotted along their course with billboards bearing mottoes and quotations bearing upon the liquor question. At many points the association proposes to erect signboards forty to fifty feet in length, with such texts as "The liquor traffic has caused more misery than war, pestilence and famine combined—Gladstone," and "Uneeda Good Constitution! Follow the flag and stay out of the saloon and you will have it."

Orders have been received by the Indiana director of rural free delivery to have all rural routes in the state accurately measured. The plan to be followed in securing the measurements will be to send men over the routes on bicycles. The wheels of the bicycles will be of a standard size, and each wheel will be equipped with a first-class cyclometer. The order states that the pay of rural carriers will be proportioned according to the number of miles covered by the routes, regardless of the number of persons served. The pay for these carriers will vary from the maximum of $720 per year to $432, the low limit. Until the routes have been measured no statement will be issued as to the salaries for the routes.

Bids have been advertised for the supplies for the members of the Indiana national guard at the camp of instruction to be held near this city late this month. Five thousand pounds of prime bacon, 4,000 pounds of hardtack, 1,400 pounds of Maracaibo coffee, 15,000 pounds of potatoes, besides beans, cabbage, onions, corned beef, fresh beef, fresh bread, prunes, etc., will be required. The camp will be held on the site of the new army post near Lawrence, about ten miles northeast of Indianapolis on the Big Four and Union Traction company's lines.

Beavers Again Arrested.
 New York, July 8.—George W. Beaver, former superintendent of the salaries and allowances bureau of the postoffice department, has been rearrested in Brooklyn under an indictment found in Washington on Oct. 5 of last year. It charges Beavers with having accepted bribes in connection with the introduction of the Doremus cancelling machine into the postoffice department.

All Now Under Arrest.
 Philadelphia, July 8.—Through the good work of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania authorities, the three negroes implicated in the assault on Mrs. Charles Biddle at her home near Burlington, N. J., on Tuesday are now under arrest.

Oklahoma City, July 8.—A waterspout accompanied by terrific wind passed through Clinton, Okla., and vicinity at midnight, in which six persons were killed and several injured.

Dubuque, Ia., July 8.—James Reed, a laborer, shot officer Daniel Norton through the heart. Norton was attempting to arrest Reed.

AN EMBARGO ON NEWS

Early Resolve on the Part of the General Staff to Keep Still Has Been Observed.

Curtain Down Over the Theater of War Will Soon Be Raised, However.

Chefoo, July 8.—Chinese who arrived here last night from Port Arthur say the Japanese forces have formed a complete cordon around the land side of the town and that they are occupying all the commanding hills within a radius of seven miles of the fortifications.

Tokio, July 8.—Operations of a paramount importance are going on within the war zone, but the government succeeds in veiling them in almost absolute secrecy. Since the occupation of Dainy the government officials have been silent concerning conditions at Port Arthur. It is generally believed, however, that the Japanese army and navy are daily tightening their relentless grip on the besieged city, and that a final assault followed by the fall of the fortress is now only a matter of weeks. It is known that engagements of varying importance are constantly occurring on the hills surrounding the city. The fleet of Admiral Togo is in motion day and night and is frequently engaged, but the forces and number of guns of the besiegers, as well as their positions, details of past operations and future plans are secrets which probably will not be revealed until the final and decisive action.

Fragmentary information from various sources especially Chinese reaches Japan, but its publication here or sending it abroad is forbidden under severe penalty. To the Japanese people it is like the enactment of a great tragedy in a thronged theater upon which the curtain never is lifted.

Much concerning the siege of Port Arthur could be published with injury to the Japanese cause, but the general staff resolved to avoid aiding St. Petersburg or General Kuropatkin with a single shred of information and has placed an absolute embargo on the transmission of all news. Geographical and local conditions, both in Japan and at the seat of war, make it possible to enforce this embargo with almost complete effect. The curtain down over the theater of war, will, however, soon be raised, and it is confidently expected that the lifting will reveal the Japanese to be in possession of splendid strategic advantages with men and guns enough to carry the campaign to a successful conclusion.

AWAITING DETAILS

St. Petersburg News Confined to Meager Official Reports.

St. Petersburg, July 8.—The admiralty is awaiting further details of the unsuccessful attempt of the Japanese torpedo boat destroyers to enter Port Arthur. The admiralty does not confirm Admiral Togo's report of the sinking of a Russian guardship outside Port Arthur June 27. The officials point out that if the report is true it would have been mentioned in the dispatches brought to New Chwang recently by the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Lieutenant Burukoff, which left Port Arthur the day after the alleged sinking of the guardship.

Emperor Nicholas has received the following dispatch from General Kuropatkin under date of July 5: "Rifle firing between patrols took place July 4 on the outskirts of Vafangow, nine miles southeast of Senchun and in the neighborhood of Potaltza. The Japanese patrols retired to the southward. We had only four wounded."

"In the outskirts of Siabenum on Halo heights, twelve miles south of Sladiama, a Russian patrol lost two Cossacks killed and two wounded.
 Nine horses were disabled."

"A reconnaissance to the southward showed that there was an advance guard of 1,000 of the enemy in the outskirts of Yan Shaufen, six and a half miles southeast of Tchalmia, and that there was a battalion and twelve guns and one squadron of cavalry at Diattalintza."

"More considerable forces are concentrated at Wao Fusan. According to Chinese accounts these were landed at Datchjuangkhe, thirty-seven miles southwest of Takushan."

"A Cossack patrol on July 4 pushed forward to Palamatetza, five and a half miles northeast of Yamalintza, where considerable forces of the enemy were discovered."

Lieutenant General Sakharoff in a lengthy report to the general staff dated July 6, covers much the same ground as the report from General Kuropatkin. General Sakharoff gives details of a number of other minor engagements in which the Russians drove back the Japanese outposts and captured patrols, but he mentions nothing in the nature of a considerable engagement or of serious losses on either side.

NEGRO LIBERTY PARTY

Colored Candidates in the Field on a National Ticket.

St. Louis, July 8.—After reconsidering its action in endorsing the candidacy of President Roosevelt for re-election in place of making its own nominations, the National Negro Liberty party nominated William T. Scott of East St. Louis and W. C. Payne of Warrenton, Va., for president and vice president respectively, of the United States.

The platform advocates unrestricted suffrage for all American citizens, without distinction or qualifications.
 It asks for the addition of two negro regiments to the regular army, the promotion of the volunteer and regular officers of the Spanish-American war, and pensions. It urges non-interference in the affairs of the far East until the government is able to protect its citizens at home, advocates the government ownership of all public carriers, and self-government for the District of Columbia, and appeals to all religious denominations to assist in the suppression of "lynch law."

Peace is Offered in Tibet.

Gyang Tse, Tibet, July 8.—A messenger from the British expedition was sent to the Tibetan peace delegates to inform them that Colonel Younghus-band was still willing to treat with them, provided they arrive at the place appointed within a reasonable time.

Will Bryan Swallow It?

Harrisburg, Pa., July 8.—Rev. Dr.
 Silas C. Swallow, the Prohibition nominee for president, has sent the following telegram to William J. Bryan at St. Louis: "My Dear Bryan: Read Numbers, 10th chapter, 29th verse.
 Come."

Lad Strangely Missing.

South Bend, Ind., July 8.—Max Medykowski, seven years old, who mysteriously disappeared on the Fourth while witnessing the parade, has still failed to return, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Medykowski, fear he has met with foul play.

Driven Out by Flood.

Kansas City, Mo., July 8.—Armour-dale, the packing suburb of Kansas City, Kan., has been practically deserted, most of its 5,000 citizens having been driven from their homes by the overflow of the Kaw river.

Old Confederate General Dead.

Washington, July 8.—General Thos.
 B. Howard of the Confederate army is dead here after a brief illness, aged eighty-four years.

 to the Russian commanders.

 erous staff, has departed for the front.

 cluding a provision prohibiting the insurance dren, instantly killing two boys and fatally injuring a girl.

 hideously lacking in self-control!"

 it dear. If they weren't most girls would die old maids."

In Memory of Frank B. Downey.

Frank Benton Downey was born in Noble township, Rush county, Indiana, January 22, 1874, and died in Indianapolis, May 22, 1904.

He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther B. Downey, who reside at No. 702 Sexton street, Rushville.

From boyhood his desire was to study electric engineering and at the age of twenty he went to Indianapolis to prepare himself for his chosen work.

He was married to Miss Myrtle A. Klapp, of that city, in May, 1898.

In his business life, his energy and perseverance, together with the conscientious performance of duty, brought him the confidence and esteem of employers and the success which he deserved.

At the time of his death, he was chief engineer in the Gas Pumping station at Summitville, Ind., which position he had held three years.

When eighteen years of age he united with the Little Flatrock Christian church. However, on changing his residence to Indianapolis, his church membership was transferred to the Third Christian church at that place. He remained a true member of that church until death. His belief in Christ was simple and unquestioning. He was firm in his convictions of right and ever ready to help those who stood in need of encouragement or assistance.

Counted by years his life was short, but "We live in deeds not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on a dial."

Wide fields of usefulness and activity seemed opened before him when disease claimed him as its victim. During the fortnight of his illness his sufferings were intense, but were cheerfully and patiently borne. The same determination and strength of will that had characterized every previous effort of his life were put to their final test in his effort to live. But the Divine Father willed that this should not be. So tired with the battle, smiling, he fell asleep, and as he slept, there came the summons, "Child, come home!" Just as the Sabbath day was dawning, o'er the quiet city the beautiful gates swung ajar to admit his spirit.

The heart-broken young wife, who, with such loving and faithful hands, ministered to his needs in sickness and in health, has left to her the memory of six years of unalloyed bliss. For during the brief span of their married life he was a tender and devoted husband.

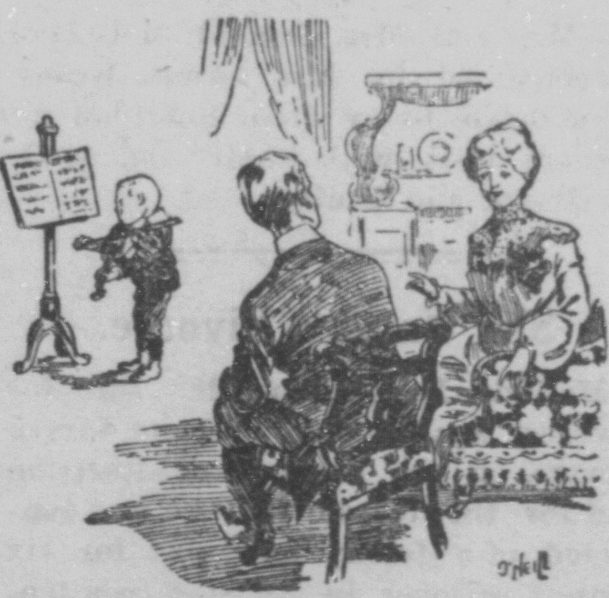

The father and mother, who yearningly watched over him as his life ebbed away, mourn the loss of their precious first-born son, being the first from their flock to be called to his reward. The brothers and sisters will miss their loving elder brother when hereafter they meet under the parental roof and his place is vacant.

Yet with common accord those who held him so dear turn for consolation to Him who said to human hearts in hours like this, "I will not leave you comfortless." And the soul of their loved one shines forth from its place among God's chosen as a star to light them on their dark path, a magnate to draw them heavenward.

"God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly."

What He hath given, They live on earth in thought as truly, As in His heaven."

Fond Mother (who is sure the visit or would like to hear her infant prodigy on the violin)—Johnnie is so far advanced that now we can almost tell whether he is tuning or playing.

VALUE OF COUNTER CHARGE.

Daniel J. Sully on the day of his admission to the Chicago Board of Trade, lunched at the Chicago Club.

During the luncheon he illustrated aptly the value of the counter-charge in argument.

"There was a man," he said, "who should have been home one night for dinner, but he did not arrive till three o'clock in the morning."

"He entered the house quietly, and ascended the stairs on tiptoe. His watchful wife, however, heard him, and in a severe tone she called:

"Henry, is that you?"

"He replied, with a note of surprise and reproach in his voice:

"Why, m—my d—dear, who else did you expect?"

A WARM RECEPTION

Governor Durbin Greeted With Enthusiasm by "Valpo" Students.

THE GUEST OF HONOR

Reception Given by the Students and Citizens of Valparaiso to Indiana's Executive.

Four Thousand People Turned Out to Give Governor Durbin Fitting Welcome.

Valparaiso, Ind., July 8.—Governor Durbin was the guest of honor at a reception by the students of Valparaiso college and citizens, fully 4,000 people being in attendance. He was met at the railway station by Prof. Brown, Congressman Crumacker, Mayor Spooner and many citizens, headed by a brass band, and was escorted to the auditorium, where he addressed the students.

RIGID INVESTIGATION

Is Being Made Into Alleged Dowle Ministrations.

Laporte, Ind., July 8.—A rigid investigation has been begun into the recent deaths of Mrs. Henry Bock and Paul Schultz. It is alleged that physicians were not called in either case, that resort was had to Edward Propke, a Dowleite, and that death in each case resulted after most intense suffering and while the victims prayed for relief. The deaths occurred in the same neighborhood, and much bitter feeling has been aroused. The authorities are determined to place the responsibility, and criminal prosecution will follow, it is thought.

Caught in the Act.

Peru, Ind., July 8.—Patrolman Albert Potter did a plucky thing and a good piece of work in capturing a couple of burglars red-handed. The men had effected an entrance to J. L. Hetzner's hardware store and had filled their pockets with watches, revolvers and ammunition and were on the point of leaving the store by a window in the rear of the building when confronted by Porter. The men were covered with a gun and commanded to throw up their hands. They obeyed promptly and the burglars were then handcuffed and placed in jail.

Saloons Gain an Opening.

Coffax, Ind., July 8.—Clarksville is losing its reputation as a "dry" town, which it has had for three years, having now two licensed saloons, with a third application to be considered by the county commissioners this month. The death of Harry Shaffer, the leader of the temperance crusade, and the expiration of the power of attorney, with failure to renew the same in June, made an opening.

Suspicion of Suicide.

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 8.—Alfred Bates, the aged father-in-law of Rollin Ellison, the Lagrange banker who recently confessed to embezzlement, was found dead in his bed at the home of his son, Albert Bates, in Abolt township, this county. A vial, which had contained carbolic acid, was found in the bed. Other circumstances point strongly to suicide.

Bank Failure Makes Bankrupt.

Indianapolis, July 8.—A petition in voluntary bankruptcy was filed in the federal court by John A. Patton, a wholesale produce dealer of Goodland. His liabilities are placed at $102,384.81 and his assets at $37,457.39. The petitioner has real estate to the value of $32,200. His bankruptcy is said to be due to the recent failure of the Goodland bank.

Writers Honor Departed Members.

Warsaw, Ind., July 8.—A memorial meeting in honor of Coates Kinney and Dr. H. S. Cunningham was held by the Western Association of Writers, now in its nineteenth annual session at Winona lake. Those who addressed the meeting were Stephen M. Reynolds, John Uri Lloyd, Dr. J. C. Culbertson, Emerson Venable and George B. Lockwood.

Another Wabash Wreck.

Logansport, Ind., July 8.—As the result of a collision between a Wabash freight train and a passenger engine at Burrows, ten miles west of here, Thomas Edgeworth, a railroad detective, is in the hospital at Peru seriously injured. Six freight cars loaded with barrels of gasoline, oil and merchandise were destroyed by fire.

Jerry Duggins Hanged.

Michigan City, July 8.—Jerry Duggins, self-confessed murderer of Mrs. William Ramsey and her two children at Terre Haute on the night of Feb. 22, was hanged at the Indiana penitentiary just after midnight last night.

Policeman Held to Answer.

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 8.—Officer John Greer, who shot and killed Henry Schmidt, who refused to halt, was arrested yesterday on a charge of murder made by the boy's father. Greer was released on a $10,000 bond.
